

Declaration of Academic Honesty (Group Work)

PLAGIARISM is the presentation by a student of an assignment which has in fact been copied in whole or in part from another student's work, or from any other source (e.g. published books, periodicals, or the web) without due acknowledgement in the text.

COLLUSION is the presentation by a student of an assignment that is claimed to be his or her own work, but is in fact the result in whole or in part of unauthorized collaboration with another person or persons.

More information about plagiarism and collusion is at the University's Academic Honesty and Plagiarism site <http://academichonesty.unimelb.edu.au/plagiarism.html>

(Member 3) declare that for this submitted work:

- We understand the meaning of "plagiarism" and the meaning of "collusion" (otherwise speak to the subject coordinator)
- We did not cut-and-paste information from others without appropriate use of quotation marks and direct reference to their work;
- We did not re-word the ideas of others without proper and clear acknowledgement;
- We did not write ideas or suggestions that originated from other students and claim these as our own;
- We did not include words from other students' work unless this was explicitly permitted in the description of this assignment;
- We have not made any other violations of the University's Plagiarism and Collusion policy (<http://academichonesty.unimelb.edu.au/policy.html>);
- The material contained in this assignment has not previously been submitted for assessment in any other formal course of study.

We understand that any violation of the above may mean:

- a ZERO mark for this assignment and/or ZERO mark for the subject
- our name will be recorded on the Faculty's Plagiarism Database. This could lead to termination of our place at this university.

For assessment purposes, we give the assessor of this assignment the permission to reproduce this assignment and provide a copy to another member of staff and take steps to authenticate the assignment, including communicating a copy of this assignment to a checking service (which may retain a copy of the assignment on its database for future plagiarism checking).
